

THE CRESCO HISTORICAL STEWARDSHIP AWARD

The Mt. Pleasant Historical Commission has established THE CRESCO HISTORICAL STEWARDSHIP AWARD that will annually recognize an individual, group, or organization for exceptional accomplishment in preserving the physical and/or cultural heritage of Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina.

THE CRESCO AWARD will be presented annually by the Mayor of Mt. Pleasant. The AWARD will consist of an official Mt. Pleasant proclamation with the Town Seal and an inscription citing the name of the awardee and the reasons for the award. The proclamation will be accompanied by a bronze medallion with the Official Seal of Mt. Pleasant and the name of the awardee and the date of the award presentation.

Awardees will be selected by the Mt. Pleasant Historical Commission from nominations submitted on the CRESCO AWARD official nomination forms by individuals and groups. Self-nominations will be accepted.

CRESCO AWARD criteria:

- The quality of the nominated project.
- The degree to which the nominated project is unusual or pioneering and serves an example that encourages the stewardship of Mt. Pleasant's physical and cultural heritage.
- The impact of the project on the understanding and appreciation of Mt. Pleasant's physical and cultural heritage.

Examples:

- The preservation and/or historically accurate restoration of a Mt. Pleasant house, building, or site.
- A book, article, or paper that focuses on the preservation and/or restoration of Mt. Pleasant's physical or cultural heritage.
- An activity that promotes the stewardship of Mt. Pleasant's physical or cultural heritage. (Historical walking tour, historical reenactment, historical performance, historical work of art or craft, or an archeological investigation that meets professional standards).

All nominations must be completed on the official Mt. Pleasant Historical Commission CRESCO AWARD forms available online and/or Mt. Pleasant Town Hall. Signed and completed nominations must be submitted to the Historical Commission as a hard copy by November 1, 2017.
