

Statewide Survey of Historic Properties
State Historic Preservation Office
South Carolina Department of Archives and History
8301 Parklane Rd.
Columbia, SC 29223-4905 (803) 896-6100

Control Number: U / 19 / 6271
Status County No Site No
Quad Name: Fort Moultrie
Tax Map No.: 5320500058

Intensive Documentation Form

Identification

Historic Name: Patjens Post Office
Common Name:
Address/Location: corner of Pitt Street and Bank Street

City: Mount Pleasant County: Charleston

Vicinity of:

Ownership: city Category: building

Historical Use: government

Current Use: other

National Register of Historic Places Information

SHPO National Register Determination:

Notes on National Register Status: Designations correspond to the following categories: Existing NRHP District / Expanded NRHP District (1930-1960) / Local District.

Other Designation: contributing / contributing / historic

Property Description

Construction Date: 1899 Commercial Form: Stories: 1

Alteration Date: Historic Core Shape: rectangular

Roof Features

Porch Features

Shape: front-gable

Porch Width: entry

Materials: metal

Shape: gable

Construction Method: frame

Exterior Walls: weatherboard

Foundation: concrete block

Significant Architectural Features: one-story frame building, glazed door, gable porch, wooden brackets, 2/2 double-hung windows, gable vent

Alterations:

Architect(s)/Builder(s): unknown

Historical Information

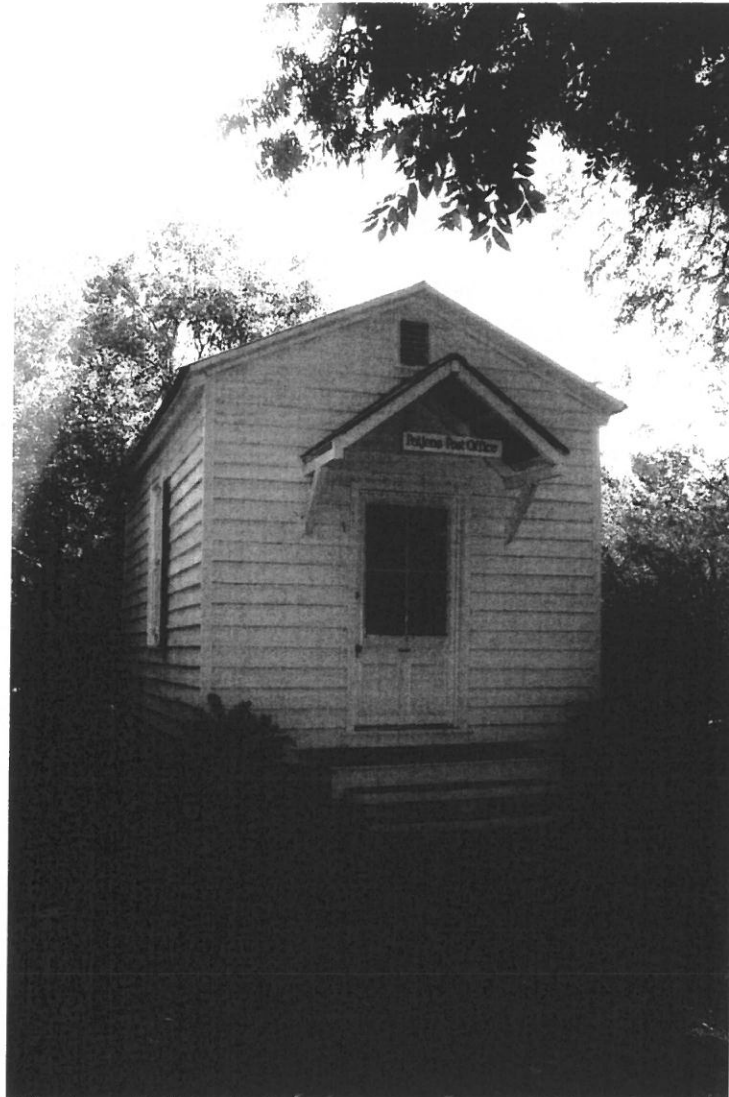

Historical Information: This building originally stood at the corner of Rivers Lane and Church Street. It was used as the Mt. Pleasant post office until 1917. John Patjens was the postmaster during this period. The building was moved to this location in 1981.

Source of Information: SCDAH Resource Form, 1985

Photographs

Roll No.	Neg. No.	View of
2	74	looking NE
	75	sign
	76	looking S

Use Grid for Sketching

Attach Photos Here

Program Management

Recorded by: Paige Wagoner

Date Recorded: 08/01/10